

Addition and subtraction word problems

Name :

Class :

Date :

Mark :

/5

%

1) The number of visitors on a particular day to a Science museum were recorded by nationality. If there were 333 Italian, 483 French and 535 Americans, how many visitors were there altogether? [1]

2) 428 children go on a school expedition. There are 146 Year 9s and 107 Year 10s. The rest are Year 8s. How many Year 8s are there? [1]

3) A supermarket has 509 sacks of potatoes at the start of the day. During the day, 185 sacks are sold and a further 141 sacks are delivered. How many sacks of potatoes are there at the end of the day? [1]

4) A factory needs to produce 6510 tubs of margarine. In the morning they [1] produce 2163 tubs and in the afternoon they produce 2358 tubs. How many tubs of margarine do they need to produce in the evening?

5) The number of visitors in a particular year to a Natural History museum [1] were recorded by nationality. If there were 12868 Dutch, 17447 Chinese and 15374 Swiss, how many visitors were there altogether?

Solutions for the assessment YR5 NC10 - Addition and subtraction word problems

1) 1351 visitors

2) 175 Year 8s

3) 465 sacks

4) 1989 tubs

5) 45689 visitors